

Discover

Following

News

Brexit

Royals

Personalise

Side Sleepers Get Achy Shoulders, Few Know This "Side Sleeper" Trick

Ad Derila

Review: Why Everyone is Going Crazy Over This High-Speed Portable WiFi...

Ad Ryoko

Bangladeshi anti-corruption officials give evidence against UK MP Tulip Siddiq

Story by Julhas Alam, Associated Press • 3w • 2 min read

Bangladeshi anti-corruption officials have given evidence in court against former British anti-corruption minister Tulip Siddiq, accusing her of using a family connection to deposed prime minister Sheikh Hasina to obtain state-owned land in the South Asian country.

Ms Siddiq, who is Ms Hasina's niece, resigned from her post in Prime Minister Sir Keir Starmer's Government in January following reports that she lived in London properties linked to her aunt and was named in an anti-corruption investigation in Bangladesh.

The Labour MP represents the north London district of Hampstead and Highgate and served as economic secretary to the Treasury – the minister responsible for tackling financial corruption.

Continue reading

Feedback